

| | |
|---------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Author Quest | We have hidden pictures of authors around the building; students must correctly identify the author AND also provide a title written by that author, so that involves coming to the library to searching the shelves. |
| The Masked Reader | Pictures of our teachers faces have been covered by the book they are reading. If a student thinks they know who it is, they need to strike a conversation with that teacher to ask about the book to confirm their answer  |
| Code busters | The title of a book is scrambled, the vowels are taken out and the spaces changed E. g. THDR YFFWM PYKD = THE DIARY OF A WIMPY KID The title of a book has been changed to Emojis. Work out what the title should actually be. |
| Micro fiction competition | Short story creative writing competition judged by a VIP |
| Reimage a book cover | Reimagination of a book cover |
| Staff book swap | Staff leave a book in the library for another member of staff to take |
| Non-Fiction Challenge | Students have a given amount of time to read as much non-fiction on myON as possible |
| | |